QUALITATIVE FEEDBACK

What topic/issue has been the most important for you?

- Practical ideas and having an opportunity to practice, discussing different play activities, using different ways of working with play. Facilitating/tracking/processing family dynamics during a play task exercise. Lots of food for thought.

Least important?

- Developmental stages already known (x2),
- none X2, none, it was all important and relevant, all good

What impact will this training have on your work?

- Inspire further team development, I will be incorporating more play in my work, feel better able to explain to parents the importance of play. Lots of ideas, extend my knowledge.
- Reaffirms play based interventions in family therapy, different ideas

Other comments?

- Thank you Annette, the day was worth coming for. I would love to do another course with more chance to practise even more activities. Lovely relaxed open style. I loved your style, however I would have liked you to have not asked us about what we want to do, just direct us to do it, rather as we will avoid doing the work, especially on a Friday afternoon
- Great workshop
- Would like more information throughout day of practical ways of working
- Some respondents requested handouts of PowerPoint, with space to write their own notes
